ALL SAINTS

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven.

The Solemnity of All Saints, which we celebrate today, invites us to raise our gaze to Heaven and to meditate on the fullness of the divine life which awaits us. "We are God's children now; it does not yet appear what we shall be" (1 Jn 3:2): with these words the Apostle John assures us of the reality of our profound relation to God, as too, of the certainty of our destiny. Like beloved children, therefore, we also receive the grace to support the trials of this earthly existence — the hunger and the thirst for justice, the misunderstandings, the persecutions (Cf. Mt 5:3-11) - and, at the same time, we inherit what is promised in the Gospel Beatitudes.

The holiness, imprinted in us by Christ himself, is the goal of Christian life. And we have a foretaste of the gift and the beauty of sanctity every time that we participate in the Eucharistic Liturgy, the communion with the "great multitude" of holy souls, which in Heaven eternally acclaim the salvation of God and of the Lamb (Cf. Rv 7:9-10).

- Pope Benedict XVI

ANIMA CHRISTI

Soul of Christ, sanctify me. Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me. Water from the side of Christ, wash me. Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O Good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds hide me.
Permit me not to be separated from you.
From the evil one protect me. At the hour of my death, call me and bid me come to you
That with your saints I may praise you. Amen

A new, young minister was making his rounds to visit the seniors in the congregation. He visited an elderly woman who was housebound. As they talked, he noticed a bowl of peanuts on the coffee table and began snacking on them. By the end of the visit, he realised he had eaten the entire bowl. "I am so sorry," he apologised. "I've eaten all your peanuts!" The woman smiled and said, "That's quite alright, young man. Since I lost my teeth, all I can do is suck the chocolate off them anyway."
